DETAILED ACTION

The amendment filed 7/30/04 is acknowledged. Claims 1-2 are being considered on the merits.

The rejection under 35 U.S.C 112, first paragraph regarding deposit is withdrawn in view of applicant's averments.

As discussed in the interview, to clarify the invention it is recommended that the term "isolated" be added to distinguish over a product of nature.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(a) as being clearly anticipated by Bordoloi et al..

Bordoloi et al. teach 2-methylheptyl isoniconitate produced by Streptomyces 201. See, e.g., page 1857.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments and Katz Declaration have been fully considered but they are not deemed to be persuasive.

The declaration is defective in that the declarant did not include himself as an inventor. No claim is allowed.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
